Disaster Relief Center Opens

The Williamson County Emergency Management Agency has announced that a disaster relief center has been established in Williamson County to provide help to residents who suffered losses in the severe storms and tornados last week.

The center is located at the Church Street side of Franklin City Hall at 109 Third Avenue South. The hours of operation will be every day from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. until further notice.

Disaster specialists from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and other agencies will be available to explain assistance programs and answer questions.

To receive assistance, residents of declared counties are asked to first register online with FEMA at www.disasterassistance.gov or by calling 1-800-621-FEMA (3362). Applicants with speech or hearing impairment should use the TDD number, 1-800-462-7585.
